THE MINISTRY OF UNRESOLVED FEELINGS

Created by Jo Strømgren Kompani and GöteborgOperaen

Who do you turn to if you're only capable of crying when you don't want to, if you get angry with dustbins, or if bread gives you panic attacks? The Ministry of Unresolved Feelings has scarce resources but an important mission. Its caseworkers are tasked with solving problems that no other authorities can remedy – through dance. Despite the growing backlog of paperwork, a surprisingly large number of people have their cases assessed.

A delicious mix of absurd humour and poignant gravity is the hallmark of Norwegian choreographer Jo Strømgren. One moment we hardly dare look – and the next we're in paroxysms of laughter. The Ministry of Unresolved Feelings enjoyed enormous success after the premiere in 2019 at GöteborgsOperaen. Although created for teenagers and young adults it was acclaimed by people of all ages.
